Travelling allowce to Hospital Apths on cholera and other special duties.

The Offg Comptroller's letter No S.A. 9643 0-4 / P.A. 88 of 14th May, 1904.

In accordance with the orders contained in Govt Proc No 4683-4 / 3214 dated the 2nd March, 1894, on which is based article 569, note 1 of the Mysore Service Regulations, Hospital Apths on cholera and other emergent duties are entitled to an allowce at a rate not exceeding 12 annas a day, on declaration being recorded that horse or conveyance was maintained.

The Offg Comptroller now brings to notice that in practice the Senr Surgeon has invariably been passing the above maximum rate in all cases irrespective of the circumstances of the journeys concerned, and requests that such orders as may be deemed necessary may be issued to the Senr Surgeon for his guidance in passing allowces to Hospital Apths under the Govt order of the 2nd March 1894.

The Offg Comptroller has forward

Paper with flag A

the Travelling allowance bill of the Hospital Asst at Srinivasapur for Dec 1903, in which the Hospital Asst has claimed the maximum rate of 12 annas for a journey of only one mile from bed to N.D.Q., undertaken by him, and the Senior Surgeon has passed it.

Submitted for orders.

10/5/04

The point for orders in the present case is whether the Hospital Assistant travelling on plague duty on the 3rd, 5th, 6th, 11th, 15th, 16th & 21st Decr 1903 come within the definition "to be constantly on the move" to entitle him to a special Conveyance allowance under Article 569, I of the Mysore Service Regulations.

On the general question raised in his letter it is open to the Comptroller to disallow claims not falling under the said Article. If approved the Comptroller may be informed accordingly.

Office of the Comptroller,
Mysore Government,
Bangalore, Dated 12 May 1904.

From

Henry Eagles, Esq.,
Offg: Comptroller of Mysore,
B a n g a l o r e.

To

L. Anantasawmy Rao, Esq., B.A.,
Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that under Art: 569 Note 1 of the Mysore Service Regulations Hospital Assistants on occasion of cholera or other emergency are entitled to an allowance not exceeding 12 annas a day, which rate is therefore only the maximum up to which the Senior Surgeon is authorized to pass allowance for journeys coming under the scope of the article. In practice, however, the Senior Surgeon is passing invariably the maximum rate in all cases irrespective of the circumstances of the journeys concerned, which may have to be considered in fixing the particular rate that may be passed. One of such consideration would appear to be the distance travelled. In an instance in which the hospital assistant has travelled only one mile from and to Head quarters, the Senior Surgeon has passed the maximum rate and I requested him to state whether in his opinion the hospital assistant deserved the maximum allowance for such a short journey. I enclose the bill in which the claim appears (T.A.Bill of the hospital assistant Sreenivaspur for December '03) as also the reply received from the Senior Surgeon in answer to my question. I feel doubtful if the mere "maintenance of a conveyance for the constant move" as urged by the Senior Surgeon entitles hospital assistants to the maximum allowance invariably for all journeys performed by them. The provision of a rate of annas 12/- in article is only the maximum limit and I do not think that the maximum rate can be passed for all journeys uniformly I request that such orders as may be deemed necessary may be issued to the Senior Surgeon to guide him in passing allowances in in accordance with the Government Order No.14683-4/G.3214 dated 2nd March 1894..

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Wm Eagles

Offg:Comptroller.

In passing Special conveyance allce under Note (1) to Art: 569 of the M. S. Regulations, it was not the intention of the Govt to take the distance travelled as the criterion. The two important conditions to entitle Hospitals Asstts to the special conveyance allce are that the occasion should be one of cholera or other emergency requiring them to be constantly on the move and that Hospital Asstts should maintain a conveyance during the period. The maximum rate of 12 as should not be allowed except in special cases which will be decided by the S. Surgeon with special reference to the circumstances of each case.
